

I urge the federal government not to weaken the rules of individual states. The citizens of New Jersey have a Do Not Call system that works for us. Do not restrict states from providing their citizens with additional protection beyond the federal guidelines.